List of illustrations

Chart 2-1 Data categories and analytical research logic 27
Chart 7-1 Different communities of the Baishatun pilgrimage 206

Map 1-1 Location of Mazu cult-centre temples 18
Map 3-1 The domain of Baishatun Mazu cult 32
Map 3-2 The village of Baishatun (Baidong Li and Baixi Li) 33
Map 6-1 The main pilgrimage routes from Baishatun to Beigang 140
Map 6-2 Pilgrimage routes from Baishatun to Beigang in 1997, 2000, 2001 141

Table 2-1 Interviewee distribution according to residence 26
Table 3-1 The ritual calendar of communal worship in Baishatun 60
Table 3-2 Branch temples of the neighbourhood temples of Baishatun 62
Table 4-1 Pilgrimage schedules in 1997, 2000 and 2001 68
Table 4-2 The ritual division of labour of the pilgrimage journeys in 2000, 2001 69
Table 4-3 Number of registered pilgrims for the journey in 2000 and 2001 74
Table 4-4 Square measure of six villages of the Baishatun Mazu cult 93
Table 4-5 Population and the number of households in Baishatun and the southern and northern villages 94
Table 4-6 Resident shares in the Mazu pilgrimage 99
Table 5-1 Number of marching and resting hours on the pilgrimage journeys in 1998, 2000 and 2001 133
Table 6-1 The rest frequency in different townships on the journeys from 1985 to 2001 147
Table 6-2 Comparison of the pilgrimage rest frequency at temples in Yuliao, Wenzai and Zhangcuo 157